Additional Information-

- The Western trials for this sport will be held on Wednesday 8th May 2024 in Orange.
 - Do not nominate/attend the Dubbo District trials if your child is unavailable for selection for WSSA or NSW PSSA trials later in the year.
 - Please note: If your child is selected and does not attend the regional trial without a good reason your child may become ineligible for further district selections during the next year.
- Conditions of trialling- (in addition to below, particular conditions for trialling for netball on next page)
 - Students MUST have a note that has been signed by their Principal and parent/carer otherwise they are not eligible to trial
 - Students should preferably be in Stage 3 (Year 5/6), however if a student demonstrates excellence in a certain sport and they are in Year 4, they may be nominated by individual schools.
- In the case of inclement weather conditions, the convenor consults the President as to whether the trials will go ahead. A decision will be made by the convenor and President and schools will be notified by email no later than 2pm on the day of the trial.
- Where students cannot attend a DDPSSA trial due to extenuating circumstances, their own school MUST complete the Exemption Form and email through to the President & Secretary prior to the trial.
 - Extenuating Circumstances DO NOT include illness, family holidays, clash of other school commitments or failure to receive information from your school. Normal selection procedures leading up to District trials MUST be attended / followed.
 - Receipt of this form allows students to be considered for a Dubbo District team – it does not guarantee team selection.
- Team Selection Criteria- a student may be selected for a team if they display the following-
 - Technical ability and tactical skills for the particular sport
 - Positional play and understanding
 - Fitness and athletic ability
 - Team play and court/field/pitch strategies
 - Understanding of the game and rules
 - Positive sportsmanship at all times and an active member of a team
- Successful & Unsuccessful students will not be announced at the trial. Schools will be notified.
- A DDPSSA Executive member will be present at all trials.
